Turning Point Weekday Preschool does not discriminate against applicants and students on the basis of race, color, and national or ethnic origin. The Turning Point Weekday Preschool is not equipped to care for the specials needs of physically and /or mentally challenged children.

Turning Point Weekday Preschool requires that each child enrolled must have an up to date Immunization on file (Form 3231) in the school office. If your child is delayed on their immunizations, or if you do not immunize due to religious beliefs, a notarized note from your physician will suffice.

The registration fees secures a place for you child and is non-refundable. To withdraw your child from TPWP, a 15 day advance written notice is required. Tuition and fees must be current through the last month attending. Tuition and fees are still due for withdrawals that occur without a 15 day notice. There will be no adjustments made for absences, illnesses, closures due to weather, or family vacations. In general, we try to follow the Bibb County school calendar for holidays and school closures. Please refer to your parent handbook for a copy of our school calendar.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY: In the event that I cannot be reached and my child needs emergency treatment, I authorize an attending physician at the nearest emergency room to administer necessary treatment to my child. I agree to assume all financial responsibility. I will hold harmless Turning Point Weekday Preschool and its staff, Turning Point at Mabel White, its staff and Board of Elders and Deacons, and The Southern Baptist Convention, for any accident or injury that may occur to my child while attending Mabel White Weekday Preschool and Parents' Day Out.

My signature below indicates that I have read the Turning Point Weekday Preschool Student/Parent Handbook and understand and agree to abide by the policies and procedures set forth in this document.
